IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereL.s. unto set my hand and affixed my official seal, the day and year above written.

GRANT GREEN, Auditor,

AUDITOR'S OFFICE, Frankfort, Ky., May 7, 1860. This is to certify, that John M. Harlan, as agent of the Liverpool and London Fire and Life Insurance Company of Br. at New York, at Frankfort, Franklin county, has filed in his office the statements and exhibits required by the provisions of an act, entitled "An act to regulate Agencies of Foreign Insurance Companies," approved March 3, 1856; and it having been shown to the satisfaction of the undersigned that said company is possessed of an actual capital of at least one hundred and fifty thousand dollars, as required by said act, the said John M. Harlan, as Agent as aforesaid, is hereby licensed and permitted to take risks and transact business of insurance at his office in Frankfort, for the term of one year from the date hereof. But this license may be revoked if it shall be made to appear to the undersigned that since the filing of the statements above referred to, the available capital of said company has been reduced below one hundred and fifty thousand dollars.

In testimony whereof, I have set my hand, the day and year above written.

JOY TO THE AFFLICTED!!!

It cures Nervous and Debilitated Sufferers, and removes all the Symptoms, among which will be found Indisposition to Exertion, Loss of Power, Loss of Memory, Difficulty of Breathing, General Weakness, Horror of Disease. Weak Nerves, Trembling, Dreadful Horror of Death, Night Sweats, Cold Feet, Wakefulness, Dimness of Vision.

Languor, Universal Lassitude of the Muscular System, often Enormous Appetite; with Dyspeptic Symptoms, Hot Hands, Flushing of the Body, Dryness of the Skin, Pallid Countenance, and Eruptions on the Face, Pain in the Head, Pain in the Back, Heaviness of the Eyelids, Frequently Black Spots Flying before
with temporary Suffusion and Loss of Sight, Want of Attention, Great Mobility, Restlessness, with Horror of Society. Nothing is more Desirable to such patients than Solitude, and nothing they more dread than fear for themselves; no repose of manner, no carnestness, no speculation but a hurried transition but a hurried transition from one question

These symptoms, if allowed to go on—which this medicine invariably removes—soon follows Loss of Power, Fatury, and Epileptic Firs, in one of which the patient may expire. Who can say that these excesses are not frequently followed by those direful diseases—Insantry and Consumption?

The records of the Insane Asyllums, and the melancholy deaths by Consumption, bear ample testimony to the truth of these assertions. In lunatic asylums, the most melancholy exhibition appears. The countenance is actually sodden and quite destitute. Neither Mirth or Grief ever visits it. Should a sound of the voice occur, it is rarely articulate.

"With weeful measures wan despair, Low sullen sounds his grief beguiled." SHIRT MANUFACTURER,

"With woeful measures wan despair, Low sullen sounds his grief beguiled." Debility is most terrible! and has brought thousands upon thousands to untimely graves, thus blasting the ambition of many a noble youth. It can be cured by the use of this

INFALLIBLE REMEDY.

If you are suffering with any of the above distressing ailments, the Fluid Extract Buchu will cure you. Try it, and be convinced of its efficacy.

Beware of Quack Nostrums and Quack Doctors, who falsely boast of abilities and references. Citizens know and avoid them, and save Long Suffering. Money, and Exposure, by sending or calling for a bottle of this Popular and Specific Remedy. It allays all pain and inflammation, is perfectly pleasant in its taste and odor, but immediate in action. IF A correspondent at Cromwell, Ohio county Ky., communicates to us the particulars of a foul murder perpetrated on the night of the 7th inst., by one Jack L. Laws upon one High Kingaite. Both parties lived neighbors, within about three miles of Cromwell. They left that place together on that night, and arriving at Kingaite's, Laws was invited to supper, after which he re-mained chatting till bed-time, when he retired to rest upon invitation. Kingaite and wife also retired, and had been asleep only about a half hour when he was awakened by the cries of Mrs. Kingaite for assistance. Laws stood in front of the bed raving that his attempt upon the lady had been unsuccessful. Kingaite sprang out of bed, but subduing his just anger, ordered Laws out of doors. The man went, but returned in about half an hour an besought Kingaite to make friends, making all sorts of humble apologi offers of amend. At the solicitation of Laws, Kingate went out into the yard, and was shot dead, forty-five buckshot entering the unfortunate man's body from a gun fired at him, from a fe feet distant, in the hands of Laws. The alarm was given, and a company of citizens, including W. L. S. Brackin, Mr. Kern, and James Norman tried and courageous men, started in pursuit of the murderer. Their efforts proved unsuccessful, owing to the efforts of Laws' friends to throw the party on a false scent. After a day and night of storm, rendering pursuit imposssible, another posse of citizens undertook the search. The learned that Laws had been seen on the Bowling green road. About twenty miles from that place they learned that the object of the hunt had dined there three days previous, accompanied by one of his brothers-in-law. At Bowling-green it was learned that the two men had taken tickets for Nashville. It has been determined that Messrs. John Gentry and Gabriel Natter, postmaster at Cromwell, should pursue the fugitive as long as there was any hope of overtaking him. They followed to Nashville, but, we infer from the letter, that the pursuit was fruitless.

whether to send a representation to Richmond or to Baltimore. The correct determination of this question, as I view it, will depend upon another; and that is, whether the doctrine of non-in tervention by Congress with slavery in the Territories, ought to be adhered to or abandoned by the South. This is a very grave and serious question, and ought not to be decided rashly or intemperately. No such small matters as the promotion of this or that individual, however worthy or unworthy, ought to enter into its consileration. It is a great subject of public policy, affecting the vast interests of the present and the It may be unnecessary and entirely useless for me to obtrude my views upon this question, in advance of the meeting of such Convention, upon whom its decision may principally devolve. I cannot, however, comply with your request, without doing so to a limited extent, at least. This I shall do. In the first place, then, I assume, as an unquestioned and unquestionable fact, that non-intervention, as stated, has been for many years received, recognized, and acted upon as the settled doctrine of the South. By non-intervention I mean the principle that Congress shall pass no law upon the subject of slavery n the Territories, either for or against it, in any was announced by Mr. Calhoun, in his speech in the Senate, on the 27th of June, 1848; and, after two years of discussion, was adopted as the basis of the adjustment finally made in 1850. It was the demand of the South, put forth by the South, and since its establishment has been again and again affirmed and re-affirmed as the settled policy of the South, by party conventions and State Legislatures, in every form that a people can give authoritative expression to their will and wishes. This cannot now be matter of dispute. It is history, as indelibly fixed upon the record as the fact that the colony of Georgia was settled under the auspices of Oglethorpe, or that the war of the American revolution was fought in of the British Parliament.

It has been up before, and, whether rightly or wrongly, it has been decided—decided and settled just as the South ask grounds upon which they based their action; or, stated in other words, it amounts to this: Whethvious course, and demand Congressional intervenries, as a condition of their remaining longer in the Union? For I take it for granted that it would be considered by all as the most mischievous folly to make the demand unless we intend to push the issue to its utmost and legitimate results. It is not my purpose now to enter the list of these disputants. My own opinions upon the subject are known; and it is equally known that this differ-ference of opinion or construction is no new thing in the history of this subject. Those who hold the doctrine that the people of the Territories, in the Territories, either for or against it, in any way—that they shall not interfere or act upon it at all—or, in the express words of Mr. Calhoun, the great Southern leader, that Congress shall "leave the whole subject where the Constitution and the whole subject where the Constitution and the the whole subject where the Constitution and the same views they now do when we agreed with them to stand on these terms. This fact is also untarnished honor, at least, su vive the wreck. them to stand on these terms. This fact is also historical. The South held that under the constitution the Territorial Legislatures could not exclude slavery—that this required an act of sove-reignty to do. Some gentlemen of the North held, as they now do, that the territorial legislatures could control slave property as absoutely as they could any other kind of property, and by a system of laws could virtually exclude slavery from amongst them, or prevent its introduction if they

That point of difference, it was agreed by both sides, to leave to the courts to settle. There was no cheat, or swindle, or fraud, or double dealing It was a fair, honorable, and constitution al adjustment of the difference. No assertion or the war of the American revolution was fought in resistance to the unjust claim of power on the part of the British Purliament. I refer to this matter of history connected with gree; for if the people, according to the great principles of self government under the constitution, have the right contended for by those who would espouse that side of the argument, then Congress could not and cannot deprive them of it. And if Congress did not have, and does not have the power to exclude slavery from a Terried that it should be-not, however, without great tory, as those on our side contended and still coneffort and a prolonged struggle. gress, and when made, in case of failure to obtain it, shall she secede from the Union, as a portion of her delegates, (some under instructions, and some irom their own free will,) seceded from the convention on their failure to get it granted to them by Congress. But this is in truth the real dectrine held by the minority. They desire to interpolate the party creed with it—to make it its rule of action. We cannot hide this greatfact by simply shutting our own eyes. The there? Thus stands the naked question, as I understand it, presented by the action of the seceders, in its full dimensions—its length, breadth, and depth, in all its magnitude.

of the Charleston Convention, and particularly the able, logical, and eloquent speech of the Hon. W. L. Yancey, of Alabama. It was, decidedly, the strongest argument I have seen on his side of the depth, in all its magnitude.

It is presented not to the Democratic party alone; it is true that a convention of that party may first act on it, but it is presented to the country, to the whole people of the South, of all parties. And men of all parties should duly and timely consider it, for they may all have to take sides on it sooner or later.

Strongest argument in the seed of the story is complete answer to itself. Never did a man with greater clearness, demonstrate that "squatter sovereignty," the bug-bear of the day, is not in the Kansas bill, all that has been said to the contrary, notwit studing. This he put beyond the power of resultation. But he stopped not the power of resultation. But he stopped not the power of resultation. there—he went on, and by reference to the decisganization of the present day, and it may, and it on of the Supreme Court alluded to, he showed, conclusively, in the most pointed and thrilling climax, that this most frightful doctrine could not, by possibility, be in it, or in any other Territorial bill-that it is a constitutional impossibility. With the same master hand he showed that the doctrine of "squatter sovereignty" is not in the Cincinnati platform; then, why should we of the Sou h now complain of non-intervention, or ask a change of platform? What else have we to do but to insist upon our tions, as well as my present views, I will cite you to an extract of a speech made by me in Augusta, in July last, on taking final leave of my conting on their side than on ours? Why should we destituents. I could not restate them more clearly or more briefly. In speaking of, and reviewing this matter, I then said.

"And, as you all may know, it (non interword) in the contest of 1856 are willing still to stand on it, why should we not be equally still to stand on it, why should we not be equally "And, as you all may know, it (non intercourse) came short of what I wished. It was, in my view, not the full measure of our rights; that required, in my judgment, the enactment by Congress of all needful laws for the protection of slave property in the Territories so long as the Territorial condition lasted."

The stand on it, why should we not be equally stand on it, why should we not be equally stand on it, why should we not be equally stand on it, why should we not be equally as the common sense, let us make it upon more tenable grounds. These are abundant. For our own character's sake, let us make it upon the aggressive stand on it, why should we not be equally as the control of the Territorial condition lasted."

But an overwhelming respority of the South was against that position. It was said that we who maintained it yielded the whole question by yielding the jurisdiction, and that, if we conceded the power to protect, we necessarily conceded with it the power to prohibit. This, by no means, followed, in my judgment. But such was the prevailing opinion. And it was not until it was well ascertained that a large majority of the South would not ask for, or even vote for. Congressional protection, that those of us who were for it yielded to non-intervention, because, though it came short of our wishes, yet it contained no sacas it was fully up to the demands of the South, through her representatives at the time, though not up to my own; and, as by it the right of expansion to the extent of population and capacity "through weal," and maintain them in good faith. amply secured."

The times, as you intimate, do indeed portend But I have no fears for the institution of slavery, either in the Union or out of it, if our people are but true to themselves-true, stable, and loyal to fixed principles and settled policy and if they are not thus true, I have little he of anything good, whether the present Union lasts or a new one be formed. There is, in my judgment, nothing to fear from the "irrepre conflict," of which we hear so much. Sl rests upon great truths, which can never be suc-cessfully assailed by reason or argument. It has grown stronger in the minds of men the more it has been discussed, and it will still grow stronger as the discussion proceeds and time rolls on. Truth is omnipotent and must prevail. Our system rests upon an impregnable basis, that can and will defy all assaults from without My greatest apprehensions is from causes within—here lies the greatest danger. Letter from Hon R. Toombs.

WASHINGTON, D. C., May 10, 1860. Your letter of the 5th inst. was duly received, and would have been before replied to, but for the fact that I have signed an address containing opinions somewhat at la ge upon the questions which you have submitted to me, and which adlress I expected would have been published before this time; that having been delayed in the mean-time, I thought it best to give you a brief reply.

I have looked with interest, but without apprehension, upon the proceedings, unmistakable evidence of the steady advance of sound constitutional principles. Perhaps the time may not have our constitutional rights; it may not have been prudent on the part of the representatives of and subsequently adjourned. seventeen States to have sanctioned and presented as much truth on the slavery issue as is coned as much truth on the slavery issue as is contained in what is commonly called the majority platform, but when it was thus sanctioned, approved and presented to the Convention, it was well to stand by and defend it, especially against the platform of the minority. The seceding delegates did this with manly firmness, and I approve their action. From the best information I have been able to obtain, I believe the majority platform was not only acceptable to a majority of the form was not only acceptable to a majority of the States, but also to a majority of the delegates, if their votes could have been taken per capita. If this be so, it ought not to have been defeated either by accident, want of foresight, or contri-

It is asserted that the Democratic pary hitherto have affirmed the principle of non-intervention by Congress with slavery, both in the States and Territories; but none pretend that it has ever asserted the right of intervention against slavery fore or after a Territorial government has been granted to them by Congress. But this is in truth the real dectrine held by the minority. They desire to interpolate the party creed with it. to make it its rule of action. We cannot muct this great fact by simply shutting our own eyes. The friends of this political opinion have defended it with ability and zeal, have tendered us the issue with ability and zeal, have tendered us the issue my stock. and demand its acceptance; it can no longer be avoided either with safety or honor. I accept it, and will give it the same determined opposition with which I have ever met it, whenever and SPRING IMPORTATION wherever presented.

After the seceding delegates left the Convention, it is understood a proposition was made by the delegates from New York to the delegates cede, which might lead to a satisfactory adjus ment of these differences. Under this new state of facts, occurring after the secession, and per haps in consequence thereof, in my opinion seceding idelegates ought to meet with the Convention at Baltimore, and endeavor to obtain such an ajustment This is due to the altered state of facts—to the magnitude of the consequences in-volved in the struggle—due to their confederates, who agreed with them in principle, but who did not secede. If they should then fail, they at least may expect to secure the co-operation of the delegates of other Democratic States in such further measures as they may deem necessary for the maintenance of the just and constitutional rights of their constituents The proposed Richmond Convention, if it shall be found necessary to hold it, can be held after as well as before the Baltimore Convention, and, I think, with clearer lights for its guidance. If this mars wat-wiff policy shall meet with any considerable opposition in Georgia, I would suggest that a Convention of the party be called by the proper authority, that they may take immediate action on the subject For myself, no party or other necessity can ever induce me to give my assent to any declaration of principles which affirms or admits, directly or by necessary implication, that there is any rightful power anywhere to exclude slave property from any portion of the public domain, (open to settle-ment to others), except within the limits of a ment to others), except within the limits of a sovereign State, and by her authority. This plain principle of equality and even-handed justice should not be bartered away or even put in jeopardy for the sake of party harmony or party success. I will be no party to such a compact. It is always true wisdom and statesmanship to adopt the best attainable measure, under all the circumstances of each case, tending to protect to stances of each case, tending to protect, to strengthen, or to advance the policy sought to be established. Truth is often slaughtered in the House, and by the hands of its own friends, by a mar²⁷ w&t-wtf M. L. It is sometimes wise to accept a part of our just rights, if we can have the the residue unimpaired and uncompromitted by the partial installment; but nothing can justify a voluntary surrender of principles indispensable to the safety and honor of the State. It is true, we are surrounded with danger; but I do not concur in the opinion that the danger to the Union is even one of our greatest perils. Our greatest danger to-day is, that the Union will survive the Constitution great body of your enemies in the North, who hate the constitution, and daily trample it under their feet, profess an ardent attachment to the Union, and, I doubt not, feel such attachment for a union unrestrained by the constitution. Do not mistake your real danger—it is great. Look to the preservation of your rights. The Union has the preservation of your rights. more friends than you have, and will last at least as long as its continuance will be compatible with your safety.

IT is known by a few individuals in the counties of Jefferson, Shelby, and Oldham that I have a remedy that effectually cures Hooping-Cough. If there are remedies in America or Europe that cures, it is not within my knowledge, (except the one I use.) Physicians tell the families they attend it can't be cured. I have no doubt they are candid in what they state. To get the medicine in use, and lull to sleep a deep-rooted prejudice, the faculty are invited to get the medicine, and save the little innocents whom they attend, and tell them no more it cannot be cured. One dollar will pay for two bottles, which is a sufficiency for oneighild. Adjutant General's Orders.

ADJUTANT GENERAL'S OFFICE, FRANKFORT, April 17, 1860. DY direction of the Governor of the State, the attention of the proper civil officers is called to the illowing provisions of the New Military Law, which shall be to the enrollment of the whole body of the ARTICLE II.

"§ 1. The Enrolled Militia shall consist of all ableodied white male persons between the ages of eigheen and forty-five years, who may be citizens or reslents of the State, except persons who have served ot less than five years in the Army or Navy of the linited States, persons who may be active members f the Volunteer Militia, and persons already exempt rom finilitary service by the laws of the United states or of this State.

"§ 2. It shall be the duty of the assessors to prepare a list annually of all persons liable to be enrolled, living within their respective limits; and they hall annually make out a roll or list of all such ames, and place it, before the first day of June, in the hands of the clerk of the county court of the ounty in which such persons live; and it shall be the duty of every such clerk, immediately thereafter, o record said roll or list of names, in a book to be provided for that purpose, in the same manner as ther books of record are provided; and such record shall be deemed a sufficient notification to all persons w lose names are thus recorded, that they have been enhalled in the Militia.

"§ 4. That it shall be the duty of the clerk of every sons w lose names are thus recorded, that they been en colled in the Militia.

"§ 4. That it shall be the duty of the clerk of every county court to transmit to the Adjutant General of the State prior to the first day of September, in every year, an annual return, stating the number of the Militia of such county that have been enrolled.

"§ 5. That for the services required by this act, of the assessor and county court clerk, there shall be allowed to each of these officers the sum of one cent for each name returned by the assessor and enrolled by the clerk.

lowed to each of these officers the sum of one cent for each name returned by the assessor and enrolled by the clerk.

"§ 6. All county clerks, assessors, sheriffs, or other civil officers, upon whom are devolved the discharge of specific duties under this act, who shall neglect or refuse to obey the provisions of law herein specified, shall forfeit and pay not more than five hundred nor less than twenty dollars for each and every offense, to be recovered in any court of competent jurisdiction, for the use of the Commonwealth.

"§ 7. For the purpose of organizing the Enrolled Milittia, each county shall be considered a regimental district; and all existing military districts and effices therein are hereby abolished.

"§ 8. At the first annual election held after the passage of this act, a Colonel and Lieut. Colonel shall be elected by the persons in each regimental district; subject to enrollment, in the same manner, and at the same time and places, and under the same forms, that civil officers are chosen at said election; and the result of the election for such Colonel and Lieutenant Colonel shall be certified by the board of examiners to the Adjutant General of the State; and in the event of a vacancy occurring or existing in either of said offices, it should be filled in the same manner as is above provided, at the next ensuing annual election; but the Commander-in-Chief shall have authority to order a special election to fill such vacancy."

The objects of the above sections of the law are, the objects of the above sections of the law are, and the objects of the above sections of the law are, and the objects of the above sections of the entire Military and the erection of the entire Military and the election of the entire Military and the discharge of the election for such Colonel shall be elected by the persons in each regimental district; and all existing military districts and effices the entire of the election for such Colonel shall be election for such Colonel shall be elected by the board of examiners

The objects of the above sections of the law are, firstly, to obtain a full enrollment of the entire Militia of the State, with a view of enabling the Adjutant General to make a complete return to the general government, as a basis on which to draw our full quota of arms; and, secondly, to provide, by the election of proper officers in every county, for a complete organization of the Enrolled Militia into companies, battalions, and regiments. The assessors will use every means to make their lists as complete as possible; and the county clerks are desired to make their returns to my office as soon as practicable after enrollment. The actual number of persons enrolled, and not the names, will be reported by the county clerks to my office.

and not the names, will be reported by the county clerks to my office.

Section 2 of Article IV makes it the special duty of the Adjutant General to see that the "offices of Colonel and Lieutenant Colonel in each regimental district shall be constantly filled." In obedience to this injunction. I therefore call the attention of the proper civil officers to Section 8, Article II, herein quoted. A column will be opened in the poll books at every place of voting in each county, at the next August election to record the votes for the offices of Colonel and Lieutenant Colonel for the regimental district; and the board of examiners are desired to report the result of such election as early as practiofficers.

As soon as the Colonel is commissioned, instruc-tions will be given for his guidance in organizing his regimental district.

J. H. WATERMAN B. WE take please ure in directing the attention of those interested, to the annexed Price Lists of our cheap Church, LIAVING purchased the residence and school property of Prof. E. A. Grant, I am glad to announce to my numerous patrons and to the public, that I am now enabled to continue my School with increased advantages. The school building is a large and commodious one, built upon the most approved plan, well ventilated, and furnished with desks of the latest style. The location is a pleasant one, in the most retired part of South Frankfort. With these increased facilities, I hope to establish a School with such a system of discipline and instruction as will commend itself to all patrons and friends of a thorough classic education. Have ample accommodations for twenty-five boarders, which number will be received into the Principal's family.

School Year begins Second Wednesday in September.

NEVER DEBILITATES.

IT is compounded entirely from Gums, and has become an established fact, a standard medicine known and approved by all that have used it, and is now resorted to with confidence in all the discases for which it is recommended.

It has cured thousands within the last two years, who had given up all hopes of relief, as the numerous unsolicited certificates in my possession show.

The dose must be adapted to the temperament of the individual taking it, and used in such quantities as to act gently on the Bowels.

Let the dictates of your own judgment guide you in the use of the LIVER INVIGORATOR.

And it will cure Liver Complaints, Britous Attacks, Dyspepsia, Chronic Diarrhea, Summer Complaints, Dysentery, Dropsy, Sour Stomach, Habitual Costiveness, Cholic, Cholera Morbus, Cholera Infantum, Flatulence, Jaundice, Female Weakness, and may be used successfully as an Ordinary Family Medicine. It will cure SICK HEADACHE (as thousands lean testify) in twenty minutes, if two or three teaspoonfuls are taken at commencement of attack.

All Who use it are giving their testimony in its favor.

All Who the it are giving their testimony in its favor.

ONLY DISCOVERY Worthy of any Confidence for

RESTORING THE BALD AND GRAY. WANY, since the great discovery of Prof. Wood, have attempted not only to imitate his restorative, but profess to have discovered something that would produce results identical; but they have all come and gone, being carried away by the wonderful results of Prof. Wood's preparation, and have been forced to leave the field to its resistless sway. DR. HOOFLAND'S BALSAMIC CORDIAL,

THE great standard medicines of the present age, have acquired their great popularity only through years of trial. Unbounded satisfaction is rendered by them in all cases; and the people have pronounced them worthy.

Liver Complaint, Dyspepsia, Jaundice, Debility of the Nervons System, Diseases of the Kidneys, and all diseases arising from a disordered liver or weakness of the stomach and digestive organs, are specifily and permanently cured by the GERMAN BITTERS.

The Balsamic Cordial has acquired a reputation surpassing that of any similar preparation extant,—It will cure, without FAIL, the most severe and long-ten or the property of the winkers, the same result will follow as the hair. I have been in the receipt of a great number of letters. The Balsamic Cordial has acquired a reputation surpassing that of any similar preparation extant.

It will cure, without fall, the most severe and long-standing

Cough, Cold, Hoarseness, Bronchitis, Influenza, Croup, Pneumonia, Incipient Consumption, and has performed the most astonishing cures ever known of

A few doses will also at once check and cure the most severe DIARRHGA proceeding from Cold in the street, Philadelphia, Pa., and are sold by druggists and dealers in medicine everywhere, at 75 cents per bottle.

The Howens will be on the outside wrapper of each bottle.
